Flea Market Open For Business Today

Be sure to stop by the trading post this afternoon to look over the many treasures that will be for sale at the camp Flea Market. Vintage camp t-shirt, patches, and other memorabilia will be available for sale beginning at 2:00 under the trading post shelter.

The Flea Market is sponsored by the Camp Eastman Development Association, a non-profit 501c3 organization that was formed to raise funds, pursue grants, and direct improvement projects that enhance the Camp Eastman experience.

The Flea Market items available have been donated to CEDA by friends of Camp Eastman. All profits raised by the Flea Market sales, and other CEDA fund-raising events, go directly towards camp improvements. If you would like more information about the Camp Eastman Development Association, visit their website at www.cedaweb.org.

Because their duties require them to be elsewhere at two o'clock, Camp Eastman staff members are invited to a sneak preview sale. Staff members can stop by the Flea Market anytime after lunch to browse and buy the merchandise.

I JUST LOVE HOW THEY COME INDIVIDUALLY WRAPPED TO SEAL IN THE FLAVOR!

Quotes of the Day:

by Abraham Lincoln

Upon seeing a tombstone engraved "Here lies a lawyer and an honest man, Abraham Lincoln said "I see they're burying them two deep now."

"He can compress the most words into the smallest ideas of any man I ever met"

"Others have been made fools of by the girls, but this cannot with truth be said of me. I most emphatically, in this instance, made a fool of myself."

"If I had 8 hours to cut down a large tree, I would spend 6 hours sharpening my axe."

A true Lincoln story

Abraham Lincoln said he was once riding his horse along a trail when a woman on a horse approached him from the other direction. When he politely moved to the side of the trail to make way for her she stopped along side of him, looked at him and said "You are the ugliest human being I have ever seen." With dignity Lincoln responded "Madame, I cannot help it. "Well," the woman said "You could stay home!"
